Hello Fall

Welcome

Autumn

Leaves

are falling

is

Autumn

calling

*Every leaf
speaks bliss to me,
fluttering from the
autumn tree*

Emily Brontë

The image features a central text area framed by a thin orange border. This central area is surrounded by a decorative border of various autumn leaves in shades of red, orange, and yellow, along with several acorns. The background is a light cream color.

Everyone must take time to sit and watch the leaves turn
